

EXPLO Systems Inc Camp Minden, Webster Parish, LA

Improper storage of M6 Propellant – Nov. 2012

Magazine Explosion – Oct. 2012

Pam Phillips, Deputy Division Director
Paige Delgado, On Scene Coordinator
EPA Region 6 Superfund Division

ISSUE: 18M lbs of M6 Propellant & other explosive materials in 98 magazines filled to capacity.

DRAFT

Entities Involved

Potentially Responsible Parties:

Explo Systems, Incorporated – Operator

DOD/ARMY – Generator

Louisiana National Guard (LANG)– Owner

General Dynamics – Generator

Coordinating Agencies:

Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF)

Louisiana Department on Environmental Quality
(LDEQ)

Louisiana State Police (LSP)

Timeline & Completed Actions

- ◉ Dec 2004: DOD transfers property to LANG after an NPL Clean Up for groundwater contaminated by Red Water.
- ◉ Mar 2010: DOD contracts EXPLO to recycle explosives*
- ◉ Oct 2012: Magazine explodes. LSP/EPA/LDEQ respond
- ◉ November 2012: LSP/LANG initiate relocation of unsecured explosives from EXPLO Systems to magazines at Camp Minden
- ◉ Feb 2013: LANG/Gov Office request for transportation & storage of explosives to Sec of Defense is denied.
- ◉ Apr 2013: DOD conducts safety assessments.
- ◉ May 2013: LSP/LANG completes relocation of ~10 million lbs. of explosives into magazines at Camp Minden
- ◉ Jul 2013: LANG seeks eviction of EXPLO/payment expense.
- ◉ Aug 2013: ATF issues Notice of Revocation to EXPLO – explosives license revocation.

WHAT'S BEEN DONE:

- LSP, LANG, LDEQ, EPA, & ATF – close coordination
- 10 M lbs. improperly stored explosives in magazines

NEXT STEP:

EPA to provide Draft AOC to PRPs and participating agencies to address hazardous substances and explosives

DRAFT

MINDEN

